CHANGES MADE
IN THE PROGRAM
FOR TOMORROW

United States Senator James E. Watson to Speak at The Christian Church Saturday Afternoon.

UNABLE TO BE HERE AT NIGHT

Chaplain John D. Ferguson Will Give an Address at the Evening Session of Celebration.

MUSIC BY BAND ARRANGED

John M. Lewis, L. C. Griffiths and Thomas M. Honan Will Also Speak—Workers' Conference.

Material changes in the program for the celebration and reception for returned soldiers, sailors and marines in Jackson county, which will be held here tomorrow, were announced this afternoon by the committee of the Victory loan organization which has the reception in charge. United States Senator James E. Watson who was scheduled to speak in the evening, telegraphed today that he could not attend the meeting at that hour, but could arrange to deliver an address in the afternoon. This message necessitated a rearrangement of plans.

The committee this afternoon announced that Senator Watson will speak at the Christian church at the afternoon session and that Chaplain John D. Ferguson, of the Thirty-second division, will speak at night. Lieutenant Taylor, a returned soldier, will also speak at night. L. C. Griffiths, chairman of the county loan organization, will outline the campaign plans at the afternoon meeting when he introduces the speaker. Judge John M. Lewis and Thomas M. Honan will speak at night.

The Seymour Concert band will give a program on the streets between 1 and 2 o'clock at which time it will direct the crowd towards the church. The afternoon meeting is scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock with the following program is arranged:

Music—High School Orchestra
America—Audience
Invocation—Chaplain Franklin P. Smith.

Address—L. C. Griffiths, county loan chairman.

Address—Senator James E. Watson.

Short conference of organization workers at the close of the meeting. The evening program is announced to begin at 7:30 o'clock:

Music—Seymour Orchestra.
Address—Chaplain John B. Ferguson.

Address—Thomas M. Honan.
Address—Lieutenant Taylor.
Address—John M. Lewis.

W. G. Masters, township chairman, announced this afternoon that practically all the factories in the city will close tomorrow afternoon so that the employees may attend the meeting. The merchants are asked to decorate their stores with flag and national colors.

DESPERATE FIGHTING FOR POSSESSION OF MUNICH

Communist Defenders Erect Barricades and Wire Entanglements.

By United Press.

Berlin, April 18—Desperate fighting continues for possession of Munich according to dispatches received here. Several regiments of government troops were reported to have met the socialist forces outside the city which are making preparations for a grand assault. The communists defenders, while maintaining their artillery fire, are erecting barricades and barbed wire entanglements in the principal streets entering the town. Plundering is said to have got beyond control of the communist guards.

ASKS SUPPORT OF SALARY INCREASE

H. B. Henderson, County Superintendent, Requests Endorsement of Chamber of Commerce.

TO EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE

Constitution and By-Laws Recommended by Special Committee are Formally Approved.

Harry B. Henderson, county superintendent, personally appeared before the Seymour chamber of commerce at the regular session Thursday night and asked that body to endorse a petition which he recently filed with the county board of education for an increase of $600 annually in his salary. The request was discussed informally and was then referred to the educational committee with instructions to look into the petition and report back to the chamber of commerce. It is understood that Mr. Henderson recently asked the farmers' association of the county to endorse his petition for a salary boost, but that the association took no action.

The petition of the county superintendent is filed under a law which was passed by the last legislature, providing that a superintendent of public schools in counties of this class may secure an increase of $600 a year in salary if the county board of education approve the

INEZ MITCHELL ATTEMPTS
SUICIDE BY TAKING ACID

Mrs. May Brewer, Mother of The Woman, Said to be Resident of Seymour.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, April 18—"Mother will know how to treat me now," declared Inez Mitchell, twenty-eight, of this city, as she drank acid early today. Nora Martin, rooming house keeper, called the police. The woman was taken to the city hospital and her condition is critical. The police say her mother is Mrs. May Brewer, of Seymour, Ind.

The name of neither Inez Mitchell nor Mrs. May Brewer is listed in the city directory and efforts to locate a Mrs. May Brewer proved futile. It is believed here that the report that the woman lived in Seymour is a mistake.

PENAL FARM PROPOSED

Governor Goodrich Has Plans Which He Thinks Will Break "Cement Trust" in Indiana.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, April 18—A million dollar cement plant at the state penal farm will combat the "cement trust" is being seriously considered by Governor Goodrich, was learned today. It is said that a commission appointed by the Governor to investigate the feasibility of the plant, the condition of the shale and limestone under the penal farm has reported that conditions were satisfactory for such a plant. This matter was said to have been taken up at a meeting of the state highway commission in the Governor's office today.

Governor Goodrich is said to believe such a plant would furnish cheaper cement or force down the plant of commercial organizations.

WISHES HE COULD DO MORE

Young Soldier Warmly Complimented for His Unwavering Loyalty and Devotion to His Country.

A soldier wearing an overseas uniform with wound stripes on the sleeve, limped into one of the local banks, this morning and unceremoniously announced that he desired to make application for a block of Victory bonds. The appearance of the soldiers among the early volunteers for Victory bonds caused considerable comment and in answer to questions he told his story.

The soldier was Clyde Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowry Foster, of Redding township. He enlisted early in the war and was soon sent to France. On the first day that he was on the front line he was wounded in the head by a piece of flying shrapnel and was also hit in the foot by a machine gun bullet. His wounds prevented him from continuing in front line service and he was sent to a hospital for treatment.

Young Foster has another brother in the service, who at the present time is lying in a hospital in France recovering from wounds. His condition is much improved, according to the last word received from him.

MANY INSPECT THE DISPLAY

George Clark, W. H. Reynolds and A. E. Murphy, County Agent, Serve as Judges.

H. C. Henderson, director of the agricultural department of the city schools, has announced the list of awards in the egg show which was conducted by his department. The exhibit was on display in the agricultural room in the basement of the Shields building and was inspected by many local people who are interested in the poultry industry.

George Clark, W. H. Reynolds and A. E. Murphy, county agent, served as judges and examined the entries, which were made in lots of one dozen each, Thursday night. The prizes were awarded as follows:

White Eggs—First, Maurice Byrne; second, Edwin Ruddick; third, Everett Foster.

Brown Eggs—First and sweepstakes, William Brackemeyer; second, Ellsworth Hagel; third, Theodore Bartlett; fourth, Merrill Harsh.

Considerable interest was aroused in the exhibit by the award of prizes which was made possible by the generosity of local dealers. The agricultural department appreciates the interest and the support that has given the display and Mr. Henderson feels that when a similar show is undertaken next year the enthusiasm will be much greater than this year.

This is the first time that a show of this kind has been given in the local high school. The agricultural department has found that the spirit of rivalry is helpful in maintaining interest in the subjects which are taken up and similar contests may be held during the remainder of the year.

THREATEN TO REFUSE TO SIGN

President Wilson Stands Upon Declaration That All Secret Treaties Are Abrogated.

By United Press.

Paris, April 18—The Italians are reported to have threatened to block the entire peace settlement unless their claims are recognized. This developed today when the "big four" again took up Italy's territorial aspirations. According to reliable information, the Italians have now taken the position that the pact of London on which their claims are based, not only grants them the entire program they are demanding, but pledges all the signatories to stand together for a simultaneous peace. As the Italians see it, they could overturn the whole peace settlement by refusing to accept any treaty not meeting their claims, then calling upon the signatories of the pact of London to live up to their agreement against arranging separate peace.

The signatories to the pact of London were Italy, Great Britain, France and Russia. Under this agreement, Italy was given certain

TWO NEGROES ACCUSE EACH OTHER OF KILLING ROBBINS

Men Held in Marion County Until Greensburg Authorities Are Ready to Act.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, April 18—Two negroes, John Hancock and Thomas Washington, accused each other, the police say in statements to detectives Thursday afternoon, of shooting Elmer Robbins, a railroad detective at Greensburg, who was killed early Thursday. Greensburg officers who were with Robbins when he was killed say that Washington fits the description of the murderer more nearly than does Hancock.

The two men were arrested by Big Four railroad detectives in a box car near Beech Grove Thursday forenoon. They were brought to police headquarters and questioned for hours by detectives Rademacher and Houlihan.

Both men at first denied any knowledge of the murder. Washington was the first to break under the questioning, detectives said, and to admit they were the men wanted by the Greensburg authorities. He declared Hancock had done the shooting.

When Hancock was informed that Washington had made this statement, he also admitted his denial was false, but he declared Washington was the man who fired the shot.

PRESIDENT WANTS TO REOPEN PRICE PROGRAM

Asks Industrial Board and Railway Administration to Confer Again.

By United Press.

Washington, April 19—President Wilson has requested the industrial board and the railroad administration to try further to reach an agreement on the price reduction program, particularly as to steel and coal.

This information was received in a cablegram in to the industrial board today. The President directed that negotiations between the two agencies which resulted in a wide breach in the cabinet be immediately reopened. He is understood not to have indicated his views as to which party in the controversy should prevail, but simply asked that further efforts be made to settle the dispute.

The text of the President's cablegram was not made public. At the industrial board it was announced that conferences will be resumed with the railroad administration as soon as they can be arranged with Director General Hines.

LIQUOR ISSUE IS BEFORE CONGRESS

Temperance Forces Expect Enforcement of War Measure in Time of Peace.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE ACTIVE

Urges That Question be Put Into the Hands of the Department of Internal Revenue.

By United Press.

Washington, April 18—"Drys" are relying on congress to settle at one strike the question of who will enforce both wartime and constitutional prohibition, E. C. Dinwiddie, head of the anti-saloon league of America, announced today.

Dinwiddie said his organization would urge enactment of a bill to put in force both brands of prohibition in the hands of the commissioner of internal revenue. "The debate as to who will enforce prohibition was raised in desperation," said Dinwiddie. "Commissioner Roper's statement that he had not power to completely enforce war time prohibition was perfectly fair and truthful but it has been considerably exaggerated. I believe that congress will provide promptly for prohibition enforcement."

"We believe that time can be saved by combining measures for enforcement of both war time and constitutional prohibition in a law modeled after the Barkley bill which was reported favorably by the judiciary committee in the last congress but failed to pass."

"The Barkley measure which Anti-Saloon officials helped frame provides for prohibition enforcement through both the treasury department and department of justice, but the principal burden is put on a 'law enforcement commissioner' to be appointed by the commissioner of internal revenue with consent of the secretary of the treasury. The law enforcement commissioner and his assistants would have the duty of ferreting out violators and appearing as complaining witnesses against them while the regularly constituted prosecuting officers, both federal and state, would conduct the prosecutions."

"The bill also defines intoxicating liquor as that containing more than one half of one per cent alcohol. The favorable report on the measure which Dinwiddie pointed out would have to be amplified before it was reintroduced, was made by Representative Volstead, of Minnesota, who will be chairman of the next house judiciary committee and will have charge of prohibition legislation."

Dinwiddie also declared that the anti-saloon league plans to ask legislation preventing the sale of books and pamphlets giving recipes for intoxicating liquors.

"The distribution of such literature is not illegal now, but we hope to make it so," Dinwiddie said. "Of course it will be illegal for any one to make liquor even for personal use."

Drys are confident that the next congress will be as favorably inclined toward prohibition as the last one, despite the aggressive campaign of the wets.

FORD MAY RETIRE FROM DETROIT AUTO FACTORY

Deal, if Consummated, Would be One of The Largest In Money World in Years.

By United Press.

Detroit, April 19—Henry Ford, motor king, has under consideration a deal whereby he would withdraw from the Ford Motor Co. relinquishing his mammoth interests which control the plant. While Ford refused to be interviewed on the subject, his secretary today admitted that such a deal is under contemplation with the General Motors Company. If consummated, this exchange would probably be the greatest made in the money world for some time past involving hundreds of millions of dollars. Rumors of these changes have been current in Wall street for some time, but previously they have been denied.

WHICH APPEALS—TO GET INTEREST OR PAY TAXES?

The Nation Owes Billions For Winning This War and Must Pay It.

This country is thinking harder about taxes right now than it has in many years. It is pretty generally understood that when the Government wants money that it has but two important ways of getting the needed funds. It can raise the tax rates, or it can issue bonds. Of the two methods it is a great deal easier on the taxpayers of the present to issue bonds. Also when the taxes are about as high as can be levied it is almost necessary to float a bond issue rather than to pile taxes upon taxes.

The income taxes are not raising the money that was expected in some quarters. For instance it is the general belief in the cities that the farmers are wonderfully prosperous and yet but 14,000 filed income tax returns. And there are more than 6,000,000 farmers in America!

Others who are not swelling the income tax lists to any great extent are the men in the mechanical trades, an industry that has been receiving the highest wages ever paid.

The failure of the income tax scheme to raise the amounts expected has forced the Government to look further for the necessary money. The extraordinary demands that will be made on the nation's resources for the reconstruction period have made it necessary to float a Fifth or Victory Liberty Loan. The ordinary ways of money raising will not give the sums required even should their results greatly increase.

The failure of money raising by means of popular loans will mean the placing of consumption taxes on tea, coffee, hides, wool and other household necessities. Raising this money by means of subscriptions to a Liberty Loan is by far the easier way both for the Government and for the taxpayer. He lets the country have his money, he gets the bond and the interest that accrues. As the years pass the strain of the war will lessen and a reserve of funds will be built up to take care of the Liberty Notes (short term bonds) as they fall due.

We have all been profiting by the funds raised in the earlier Liberty Loans. Paid out in wages in war plants, for foodstuffs from the farms or for materials used in war industry, most of the money has remained in the United States. What is true of these loans will be true of the Fifth. It will aid every man and every business in America during the difficult after the war days.

TWO MILLION FEET OF MOVIE FILM IN VICTORY CAMPAIGN

Noted Stars Appear in Special Pictures—Theatres Not Charging the Government.

More than two million feet of motion picture films have been supplied to the treasury department by the motion picture industry for use in the Victory Liberty Loan appeal. Many pictures heretofore banned by the censor on account of the information they contained, have been released and are included in this lot. "The Price of Peace" is the stellar feature, containing 5,000 feet of actual activities on the battlefield in France, photographed by the signal corps of the United States army during some of the hottest fighting. One of the photographers was killed while on this work.

The treasury department got all this film at the actual cost of the film itself, and without profit to any individual or any concern in the motion picture business. The exhibition of all the Victory Liberty Loan appeals will be made by the theatres without charge to the government.

"The Price of Peace" contains the pictorial record of the first American attack at Chateau-Thierry, and the spectator sees American soldiers drive back the Germans when it seemed almost impossible to check their advance. This picture also shows a spectacular air battle in which the German airplane is destroyed, and this particular feature affords an opportunity to see a German aviator in action. A field piece and its crew are shown on the screen and a moment later it is completely wiped out by an exploding shell from the enemy's gun. At the end of the picture the American soldier is "registered" keeping watch on the Rhine.

Activities of the army, navy and air force are shown in the "Price of Peace." The American soldier is seen from the time of his enlistment in the service until he crosses the Rhine. It then he is shown in actual battle for France, his embarkation, life on the transport, his debarkation, and then he is shown in actual battle for peace. Because the men who fall are really dead is why "The Price of Peace" is considered one of the greatest spectacles in the history of motion pictures.

Dramatization of ten of the best deeds of heroism of American soldiers is another important feature of pictures provided by the War Loan Organization publicity bureau. Reproduction of the heroic deeds were staged at Camp Dix, and American soldiers used as actors. The staging of the battle scenes was directed by officers who had seen service on the front, and the motion picture record of the ten achievements is complete.

Douglas Fairbanks has produced a new film which he donated to the treasury department to help the Victory Liberty Loan. Julian Eltinge has also produced a film to be used during the campaign.

Liberty Loan films made by 27 motion picture stars for the Fourth Liberty Loan have been altered and re-titled for the Victory Liberty Loan. These films were not shown in many sections of the United States during the Fourth Loan because of the influenza epidemic.

A committee of the biggest motion picture producers is co-operating with the treasury department in this film campaign in behalf of the Victory Liberty Loan and has issued appeals to all the exchange men and exhibitors in the United States to provide the fullest co-operation. Film committees representing the twelve Federal Reserve War Loan Organizations are collaborating with the picture interests in each Federal Reserve District.

IGNORANT MONEY HIDING

The dollar-hider endangers his funds and his personal safety, also he works against prosperity. Money buried in the ground or stowed away under carpets, in clocks, mattresses, bureau drawers, trunks, or stockings, is inactive money, even if you wear the stockings. If it does not get lost, it is a temptation to thieves—an incentive to crime. Money kept in your safe is never safe; that's where the burglar looks for it. Take a tip, Dollar-hider: Buy a bond—have it registered, and laugh at the burglar in your sleep. —BOLTON HALL, Author of "Thrill."

boost and the superintendent could secure a petition of four names favoring it. The petition, under the law, must be filed with the county commissioners, which body has final action.

When the question was before the board of education, the members, who are the township trustees and the president of the school boards of the incorporated cities and towns, told Mr. Henderson that they would not object to the proposed increase in his salary, if he would secure a petition of four hundred voters which would be equally representative of all townships, according to population. Mr. Henderson stated that he intended to follow this course but did not desire to take the time to first secure the petition until the attitude of the board of education and the commissioners was stated.

The salary of the county superintendent at the present time is $1,408.50. In addition to this amount he receives $100 traveling expenses for inspecting the schools of the county, $250 annually for clerk hire and $150 for the purchase of diplomas and other office supplies.

Definite action was not taken by the chamber of commerce as the request of the county superintendent was looked upon as a personal matter and it has been the policy of the organization to keep out of personal, political and religious disputes. What action is taken will depend upon the report of the educational committee at the next meeting.

The new constitution and by-laws which were drafted by a special committee of thirteen members were reported for final action and were formally approved. The constitution and by-laws in a general way are practically the same as those adopted soon after the association was formed. At the last previous meeting, the special committee made its preliminary report and several recommendations were made and included in the final draft. The full text of the constitution and by-laws

A. E. Murphy, county agricultural agent, was present at the meeting and asked the chamber of commerce to get behind the movement to send students to Purdue University for the annual short course. He suggested that the trips be awarded as prizes and thought that the local business men might work out some plan that would be to the benefit of those who desire to attend the short course. Mr. Murphy's suggestion was referred to agricultural and educational committees for consideration.

A number of other minor matters were presented to the members and the meeting was one of the most interesting that has been held since the chamber of commerce was organized. Now that the constitution and by-laws have been formally adopted

IT'S NO TIME TO GO 'ROUND
PUTTING UP A POOR MOUTHLook Yourself in the Eye and Then Answer Some Pertinent Questions.

Have you got the idea that you've done all you can afford to do for your Uncle Sam and the boys who did your fighting at the front?

Have you told yourself that you have bought all the Liberty Bonds you can carry?

That you have taken every single, possible War Saving Stamp that you can take care of?

And that you have given every possible red cent to the war aid societies, including the Red Cross?

So you are satisfied, are you, now that the war is over, that you have done your part and that you will let the rest of the country take care of the balance of the war?

Do you stand up and stick your thumbs in the arm hole of your vest and talk whiningly about the way you are being asked to subscribe?

And looking yourself in the eye can you call yourself a red-blooded, 100 per cent, a loyal dyed-in-the-wool sort of an American?

Do you feel that you are just as much responsible for the victory as the chap who went across and lost an arm? Or a leg, or an eye? Just as much as the lad who lost his hearing, or his life, or all the future there was for him?

Think of This Boy?

A search party following a National Guard Division through the woods west of the Meuse came upon a German machine gun pit that had been hit by an American shell. There were five dead Huns in it. A few yards away lay a lone American, who had been closing in on them. The top of his head was gone, but he lay facing the gun pit with his arms full of hand grenades. Now, have you done everything possible? Have you done your part as well as that lonely American who was boring straight in when the Huns got him?

Have you done as much as the other fellow who stayed at home and who believed in the war, who did what he could, who went into debt and is now saving and skimping and sacrificing to finish his bond payments?

You know whether you are a quitter or not. You know whether you have done all that you could. You know whether you are in the mood to lay down at the finish—to quit like a mongrel strain racer that feels the spur.

Are You a Slacker?

As a matter of plain fact there are millions of Americans who never did do all that was in their power in the way of buying Liberty Bonds. They had the "quitting" strain in them right along. They weren't "slackers." They did a lot. But they never put that last ounce of pull into the collar.

The man who is able to buy bonds is putting himself in the "quitter" class when he fails to come through on the Fifth Loan. We went into this thing with our old Uncle Samuel. We swore that we would see it through. We all want the ghastly mess cleaned up and done with. We want the lads back home, going about their business, working, playing, making love, marrying, making homes and building up a great country.

But we are not out of the woods yet. We don't know when we will be. Having started this, it must be finished. We have gone too far to quit now and come home and forget about it.

There is only one honorable thing to do. We must stay abroad until our obligations have been fully and fairly met. To do this there must be support, full, hearty and complete support, financially and otherwise, in the Victory Liberty Loan.

FLOATING LOAN ON "BUSINESS
BASIS" REACHES EVERY HOMEUnless Entire Country is Solvent
There Can Be No Business.

Most Americans have heard sidewalk and roadway discussions of the Victory Liberty Loan in which one man will say something like this:

"Well, of course, when the time comes and the campaign starts it is a government campaign and you are going to have my support just as you had it in the other campaigns. But in this preliminary period I want to say that I believe the loan should be put over on a business basis."

The proper answer to give this suggestion should be in substance about as follows:

"All right, sir, our answer to that is that we agree with you, first because we believe that it is good business for the nation to be patriotic. Unless the country is solvent there can be no business. And the first business point to be considered now is that we owe the money. I think you have admitted that the American people as a whole owe the money, and I think you will agree that unless a great nation pays its bills it cannot continue to be a great nation."

"The next point is that we should pay our bills promptly. No merchant hesitates to urge upon the Government the prompt payment of its bills. The public supports this appeal. Furthermore, it is the tradition amongst men that commercial bills should be paid in thirty or ninety days. Since the Government owes the money, therefore, it should pay it promptly. Now how can it pay it?"

"There are only two ways—by taxes and by bonds. Goodness knows the taxes are high enough already. The only alternative, therefore, is to get money through bond issues."

"Now when we come to the sale of bonds there are only two ways to dispose of them—first, by placing them with the banks, and second, by selling them to the people as we have done in the past four loans."

"Let us suppose we place them with the banks. What happens? Well, a bank is a storehouse and distributor of credit. Credit is the lifeblood of business and industry. Without credit you cannot expand your business, and if business does not expand in a wholesome, natural way labor cannot be fully employed. There is no panacea or magic solution for the present tendency towards labor unrest. The only sound way to cure it is through the normal and healthy expansion of industry, incident upon the return to normal conditions of American business prosperity. This cannot take place without readily available credit, and if the banks are choked up with Government bonds the rates of interest upon loans will be so high that business men will hesitate to undertake new ventures and to make new commitments."

"The treasury is taking advice, and will put out the best bonds, from all points of view, that possibly can be supported. Once it is offered, however, the only intelligent way to meet this situation, from a strictly cold, practical business standpoint, is to get under this job and see to it that the bonds are placed with the people who can hold them as a splendid investment and who in the great majority of cases will hold them until maturity and not only receive dollar for dollar for them but probably an increase."

The first case to develop out of the new dog ordinance recently passed by the city council came up in city court this morning when Mrs. H. C. Whitmer was arraigned on a charge of allowing her dog to run at large. She entered a plea of guilty and was fined $2 and costs in all amounting to $7.00. The police expect to see that the dog ordinance is enforced and it is likely that more arrests will be made if the owners of some dogs that have been seen running at large can be ascertained.

The spirit of Easter in clothes

THIS year we feel that Easter is bringing a new birth to the world; time honored institutions and traditions have gone; new ideals of democracy have come.

This same spirit has been carried over even into clothes buying; it shows in the desire for new styles, fresh fabrics—something finer and better than you men have ever had before.

It was with this in mind that we bought for you—the best merchandise obtainable, the finest styles; rich all-wool fabrics; careful tailoring; suits and overcoats made by

TOURING CAR FAVORED

Council Committee Will Likely Make Such a Recommendation.

That the special committee of the city council which was appointed to investigate the purchase of an automobile for municipal purposes will recommend the purchase of a touring car, is the belief of those who are interested in the matter. It was proposed that a truck be bought so that it could be used by the fire department in cases of emergency. The committee, it is stated, feels that the touring car is most essential at this time. The report will be made next Wednesday night at the regular session of the council.

The sale of Herman Buening, Uniontown, which was held today was largely attended. Lunch was served by the Uniontown Ladies' Aid Society.

NUMBER OF DISTRICTS ALREADY TAKE QUOTAS

Fairview, Hamilton Township, Has Already Pledged Twice Amount of Apportionment.

The Jackson County Victory loan organization believes that the quota of $482,400 in the Liberty loan drive will be quickly subscribed and that the county may file an "over the top" report by 9 o'clock Monday night. The interest that is shown in the rural districts indicates that the townships' quotas will be sold without delay.

Fairview, Hamilton township, has already sold twice the amount of its apportionment and Kurtz, Salt Creek township, has its allotment subscribed. A number of other districts have the soliciting completed, but are withholding reports until Monday morning.

NATIONAL GUARD TO BE REIMBURSED

Claims Filed by Former Guardsmen for Money Spent for Uniforms To Be Paid by State.

BLANKS ARE BEING ISSUED

Number of Seymour and Jackson County Men Now in Service Are Affected by Order.

Seymour and Jackson county men who were members of Company K, Indiana national guard and purchased their own uniforms at the time the United States entered the world war, will be reimbursed to the amount they expended. They bought their own uniforms at that time with the understanding that the federal government would return the money to them later.

Harry B. Smith, adjutant-general of Indiana, has announced that the men will be reimbursed within a short time. General Smith is sending blanks to the company commanders of organizations in which soldiers bought their own uniforms or other equipment. Soldiers may obtain these blanks by applying to the officer who was company commander when the equipment was bought. The requests must be approved by the company commander and on presentation to the office of the adjutant-general of Indiana, statehouse, will be certified to the state treasurer for payment.

Provision for reimbursing the soldiers is made by the state in accordance with a law passed by the last legislature. The law contained an emergency clause and General Smith is now ready to carry out its provisions. The duty of reimbursing the soldiers rests on the federal government, but state officials, disappointed in their efforts to get the money from the federal treasury, asked the legislature to authorize the payments from the state militia fund. The state will continue its efforts to collect money from the federal government.

General Smith said that about 2,000 Indiana soldiers bought uniforms or other equipment at a cost ranging from 10 cents to $13.56.

ERNEST H. MOTE WILL

Former Hayden Resident Withdraws Appeal to Circuit Court—Other Charges.

Concerning Ernest Mote, a former Hayden resident the Columbus Herald has the following:

Ernest H. Mote, who has been in the county jail, awaiting trial on a charge of issuing fraudulent checks, was taken into Squire E. H. Kinney's court Thursday morning but the case was continued over until next Tuesday, April 22.

However, Mote will not stand trial in Justice Kinney's court, owing to other conditions in the case. Last fall when Mote was given a fine by Mayor Jones of twenty dollars, and thirty days in jail, for association with Mary Leslie, Mote appealed the case to circuit court. The sentence meant fifty days in all. According to a law passed by the last legislature any one given a sentence to the county jail for more than thirty days must serve the sentence at the penal farm. Thursday morning Mote appeared in court and dismissed his appeal. He will be taken to the farm at once to serve the fifty days.

Mote may be tried on the other charges after serving the penal farm sentence.

NOT TO INTERFERE WITH LOAN DRIVE

W. S. S. Campaign Designed to Promote Thrift as Permanent Habit Among People.

PLENTY OF CAPITAL IN U. S.

Will Help Loan Because it Increases Number Who Practice Wise Spending.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 18—The 1919 W. S. S. Campaign will in no way interfere with the Victory Liberty Loan drive. This was the statement today of Postmaster Robert E. Springsteen, director of the Indiana War Savings Committee, on returning from Washington where he conferred with officials at the head of the national campaign. The W. S. S. campaign, he said, is designed to secure the long continued and steady sale of stamps and certificates, to promote thrift as a permanent habit among the American people. Mr. Springsteen's statement follows:

"Our appeal is to the enlightened self interest of the investor and to the motives of good citizenship. The Victory Loan, on the other hand, is properly being conducted to the appeal of war patriotism, with the object of securing a large sale within a short time. We feel that the Victory Loan organization and the War Savings committee should have the same feeling of friendly co-operation that has characterized the relations between the savings committee and savings banks and thrift investment companies.

"There is plenty of capital in this country available for investment in both government funds and in the various commercial and industrial securities which are necessary to the development of business during the period of readjustment following the war. The problem is not to secure for investment in government securities a large portion of a limited fund, but is rather by means of thrift education and by impressing upon the people the value of intelligent savings and wise investment, to increase the amount of available capital.

"The Savings Campaign will help the Victory Loan because it increases the number of people who practice wise spending, intelligent savings and safe investment."

Mr. Springsteen announced that reorganization of the State Committee for 1919 is well on its way to completion. Every postmaster in the state, every county and city school superintendent will be a part of the organization. A new division is being planned to organize War Savings Societies all over Indiana and a Woman's Division also is planned.

Earl Scifres Released from Mayo Bros. Sanitarium After Careful Examination.

AESOPHAGUS ENTIRELY CLOSED

Will Leave College and Return to Crothersville to Start Chicken Farm.

Bringing back the news that the specialists can do nothing for him and yet in a cheerful frame of mind, Earl Scifres, a well known I. U. student, who was sent from here to the Mayo Brothers sanitarium at Rochester, Minn., three weeks ago by a number of good Bloomington people who paid all his expenses, says the Bloomington World. The young man was informed that his esophagus is permanently closed.

His condition is very unusual and unfortunate one in that typhoid fever seven years ago left him with the esophagus grown over so that he can not swallow even liquids. After he recovered from the fever, surgeons performed an operation on his side so that he could feed himself by inserting a rubber tube through which he pours milk and broths. Not a drop of liquid has passed down his throat since his recovery from fever and no solid foods have been taken for seven years. At times he has an intense appetite for what other folks eat and occasionally partakes of solid food only to cast it out of his mouth after chewing it a short time. He came to the university last fall as a student from his home in Crothersville, and as his parents are in humble circumstances with ten children to support, the young man started out to make his own way through school. He was carrying full college work besides getting up at 3 o'clock every morning to work in the university cafeteria.

STORES DOING BIG BUSINESS

Annual "Parade" This Year will Cost Slightly More But Price of Everything is Higher.

Scores of attractive spring dresses, hats, suits, coats and other wearing apparel are ready to make their debut on Easter Sunday. It has long been the established custom to inaugurate spring togethery on Easter and this year will not be an exception. The display of spring wearing apparel on Easter Sunday is frequently referred to as the Easter "parade" for at that time many dresses and hats are carefully taken from their boxes and introduced to actual service.

The local stores have done a big business during the last week or ten days and if the volume of trade can be taken as a criterion, the Easter display of togethery this year will be general. To be sure, dress goods, hats and clothing cost slightly more than one year ago, due largely to the increased labor costs of the manufacturers. But the public has become accustomed to soaring living expenses and realizes that not only wearing apparel, but practically everything they buy costs more than it did twelve months ago. Even the sermons that are delivered on Easter will cost more than last year as the salaries of practically all the ministers have been raised during the last year.

Some lines of wearing apparel will not cost more than last year, but most show an increase of from five to twenty-five per cent. With the close of the fighting and a partial restoration of ocean transportation, more imported lines are on display

TEXT CHOSEN FOR SCHOOLS OF STATE

State Board of Education Selects Books to be Used in Grades for Five Years.

FIGHT OVER ARITHMETIC

Domestic Science and Industrial Art Book Left to Discretion of Different Schools.

Indianapolis, April 18—The state board of education sitting as a state board of school book commissioners yesterday adopted texts to be used in the grade schools of Indiana for the next five years. The books were adopted by open ballot for the first time in the history of the commission.

The fight to retain the Phillip and Anderson arithmetic published by Silver, Burdett & Company of Chicago, the books now in use, resulted in a bitter contest and fifty-seven ballots were taken before a compromise set of arithmetics was agreed upon. Several members held out for the adoption of the Modern arithmetics published by Lyons & Carnahan, but late in the voting the Wentworth-Smith arithmetics published by Ginn & Company, were introduced in the contest and were adopted.

The reader adoptions were less spirited, as the primer and the eight readers chosen were distributed to three different publishers. The Child Classic primer and readers for the first, second and third grades, published by the Bobbs-Merrill Company of Indianapolis, were re-adopted, but new readers were adopted for the fourth and fifth grades. In addition to the readers previously required the commission adopted readers for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

Domestic science and industrial arts texts bids, which were advertised for, were rejected by the commission when a resolution presented by W. E. Stone president of Purdue University, was adopted. The sense of the resolution was that no one set of books in these subjects would fit the needs of the various schools of the state. Writing books were also adopted.

The following books were adopted: Wentworth-Smith's arithmetics, Ginn & Company, two book series. The price bid for the primary book was 27 cents and are advanced 48 cents. The books now in use sell for 30 and 42 cents.

Child classic readers, published by the Bobbs-Merrill Company, primer, 18 cents; first, 19 cents; second, 25 cents and third 31 cents. The present prices of these books are 15, 20 and 25 cents.

Elson readers published by Scott, Foresman & Company, fourth 33 cents; fifth, 37 cents, and sixth, 37 cents. The fourth and fifth grade Child Classic books now in use sell for 30 and 40 cents respectively.

Baker-Thorndike Everyday Classics, Indiana edition, published by the MacMillan Company, seventh and eighth, 54 cents each.

The Public School Writing System writing books, published by the Fort Wayne Printing Company, were adopted. The New Outlook System, published by O. P. Barnes are now in use. These were not considered in the adoption because the bids did not contain the whole-sale price.

The lot of casting the first open ballot in a school book adoption fell to Mr. Benezet. Mr. Benezet, before casting his vote, rose to make an explanation. He said he had obtained the opinions of 142 teachers in his schools and that 131 were dissatisfied with the arithmetics now in use.

THRIFT CAMPAIGN TO BE WAGED IN THE SCHOOLS

State War Savings Committee to Arrange for Series of Ten Thrift Lessons.

Indianapolis, April 18.—Following adoption by the state board of education of resolutions including thrift in the course of study in all the public schools, the Indiana war savings committee has begun distribution of a large amount of material for the use of teachers. In co-operation with the state board, it has arranged

Expectant Mothers View Event Calmly

Time Brings Knowledge That by Use of Penetrating Remedy Suffering is Avoided.

Thousands of women have found by the application of Mother's Friend, the penetrating external remedy, prepared especially for expectant mothers, that pain and suffering at the crisis is avoided and that in addition the months preceding the crisis are free from nervousness, nausea, stretching and bearing-down pains and general discomfort. Mother's Friend makes it possible for the expectant mother to herself actually aid nature in the glorious work to be performed, and no woman should neglect to give nature a helping hand. It will mean infinitely less pain and the hours at the crisis will be less. The period is one of calm repose and restful nights.

By the use of Mother's Friend the skin is kept soft and natural, and experienced mothers say that it is much better to keep your health and good looks during the period of expectancy than to try to regain them afterward.

Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. G, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their interesting Motherhood Book, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend and begin its use at once.

DOCTOR PRESCRIBES VINOL

For Schoolboy to Create Strength After Sickness

Vineland, N. J.—"I am a schoolboy, 17 years of age, and typhoid fever left me weak and debilitated, so I had to stay out of school three months—my doctor prescribed Vinol. It has built up my strength and now I am feeling fine."—S. E. Bunce.

The reason Vinol was so successful in this boy's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich, red blood and create strength. to provide a series of ten thrift lessons for all the schools.

These lessons will form outlines to be followed by the teachers, or remodeled and improved upon by them as they choose. Each set will be accompanied by instructions and a supply of thrift cards for the use of pupils. These cards somewhat resemble savings bank deposit cards and will be used by the pupils to record their savings.

The war savings committee plans to send out before the end of this month some 16,000 sets of lessons with as many sets of instructions. It will also distribute approximately 500,000 pupils' thrift cards. E. U. Graff, superintendent of the Indianapolis schools and director of the committee's educational division, has already written to all county and city school superintendents advising them of the committee's pleasure in co-operating with the local authorities to make effective the state board's resolution. The text of this resolution to encourage thriftiness among the children follows:

"Whereas, The exigencies of the world war have brought vividly to the national consciousness the need and the value of thrift; and

"Whereas, The United States government through the national war savings committee is now requesting that thrift education which will promote permanent habits of saving and investment, should be fostered by the educational organizations and authorities; and

"Whereas, The duties of good citizenship and peace time patriotism point to the value of having the citizens of the country participate directly in helping to finance the government; therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the state board of education of Indiana, That the subject of thrift be included in the state course of study and that a definite time, each week, be devoted to the study of this subject. Be it further

"Resolved, That this be brought to the attention of school officials throughout the state of Indiana and their compliance with it be earnestly sought."

INDIANA STATE GRANGE SUPPORTS VICTORY LOAN

L. H. Wright, State Master, Sends Letters to the Grangers of the State.

Members of the Indiana State Grange, through L. H. Wright, Master, and of the Indiana Horticultural Society, through H. H. Swaim, Secretary, have been urged to join in the Victory loan campaign, both as organizations and individuals.

Mr. Wright in his letter to the Grangers says: "Every family in America, which had sons in the service will welcome this opportunity to demonstrate with their dollars, their thankfulness for the preparations which made it possible for their boys to return safe and sound. And every loyal American will feel it his bounden duty to aid in every way and subscribe to the Victory Liberty Loan.

Mr. Swaim addresses the members of the Horticultural society in part as follows: "Farmers will be asked to assist as they have done in the past. The farmer recorded a 100 per cent. support in the other loans and he will not fail in this. In addition to patriotic reasons, there are many features of the 'Victorious fifth' which will appeal to the thoughtful investor."

GRAIN GRADING SYSTEM TO BE MADE SUBJECT OF STUDY

Greater Conformity of Inspection Between Various Markets Is Aim of Commission.

Washington, April 18.—To study the grain inspection and grading system in connection with the Federal grain grades with a view to bringing about greater uniformity of inspection between the various markets, a committee composed of representatives of the most important grain trade and milling organizations of the country, the National Council of Farmers' Co-operative Associations, and of the Bureau of Markets and the Railroad Administration will meet in Chicago, April 14. After the conference in Chicago, the committee will start on a tour of the larger markets east of the Rocky Mountains, spending from one to three or four days in each.

In March, announcement of the projected plan was made by Charles J. Brand, Chief of the Bureau of Markets, Washington, who said: "The committee will visit the principal grain markets of the United States east of the Rocky Mountains, with a view to ascertaining all the facts possible with reference to grain inspection, in order to assist the Bureau of Markets in bringing about greater uniformity in the application of the official grain standards."

"I think the committee will want to consider carefully such factors as the following: Physical facilities for inspection, including amount and kind of equipment; suitability of inspection laboratories; methods of inspection procedure including number of inspectors; methods and accuracy of sampling; cost of the service; switching and demurrage problems; reinspection; appeal privileges and such other matters as may be deemed important by the committee. It seems to me that after the committee has made a survey of the important grain grading markets and has obtained the information relating to these subjects, the members will be in a position to the several markets and to the bureau ways and means of obtaining greater uniformity in the inspection of grain."

By an act approved March 4, the qualifications of pharmacists were materially raised. After January 1, 1920, no person will be permitted to take the examination to become a registered pharmacist unless he is a graduate of a school of pharmacy in good standing. A school of pharmacy in good standing is one which prescribes two years of commissioned high school work or its equivalent as an entrance requirement and the instruction in which covers a period of not less than fifty weeks, occupying two school years and at least two months shall elapse between such school years, and each school year shall cover 250 hours of class room instruction and 350 hours of laboratory practice which must include the work outlined in the latest edition of pharmaceutical syllabus. The act does not apply to persons who are registered assistant pharmacists or registered apprentice pharmacists.

Their Unfinished Work— and Ours

THE great purpose which lay back of the war was far too vast a task for any one body of men to put through to a finish.

Our soldiers have done—are doing—their part. God knows we never wanted them to do more.

But what of us?

Winning the war was the initial step toward a world peace and prosperity of which hitherto we had never dared to dream. But it was only a step.

The work of the most glorious armies of all history placed us on the threshold of an open door. A new world of unlimited possibilities lies beyond. They could not bring it to us. They could only show it to us, and its vast worth—and give their lives to do it, if that were needed.

It is our task to finish this work.

They showed us the way and passed on—perhaps to new worlds to conquer. And whether we will or not, the solemn obligation to finish their work has fallen upon us.

“If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep—though
poppies bloom
In Flanders fields.”

Your patriotism and mine was not buried in those graves in Flanders fields. There is still work to do—for our country, for ourselves, for our children. Else the war will have failed in its purpose—and millions of young lives will have gone out on a vain quest.

CLASS PLAY

Medora Senior Class Will Present
"The Triumph of Knowledge."

The Medora Senior Class play will be given Saturday evening April 19, in the Medora High School auditorium. The scenes for the play are laid in Beavertale, sometime in June, and opens with the offering of a prize of $100 by Willard and Ernestine Love for the best play written by a student at Beavertale. Deeva Hale, a poor student who is working her way through college and with whom Willard has fallen in love, becomes discouraged by adverse criticisms and attempts to destroy her play. It is rescued however and chosen as the prize play. Clyde Little, a student, who has lost money gambling and is in dire need, watches Deeva hide her play. He plans to steal it but she tears it up. He watches her leave and forms the plan to claim the authorship. "The Triumph of Knowledge," the play written by Deeva Hale is produced. It is a Greek pageant in which Knowledge and her followers, by the help of Wisdom, overcome Ignorance and his followers. Clyde claims the authorship and reward. Pearl Snow, the cook, denounces him and tells that the play belongs to Deeva Hale, who has read a part of it to her. Willard finds Deeva and brings her back. Clyde leaves repentant. Deeva is given reward.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN 4 PER CENT U. S. BONDS WERE SOLD AT $1.40?

Bankers Foresee Repetition of Such Prices a Few Years After Victory Campaign.

One does not have to have a long, flowing beard to recall the time not so many years ago when a United States government 4 per cent bond sold with in a fraction of 140. That meant that the man who had bought one of those bonds for $140 and had been collecting 4 per cent interest on it while he held it could sell it for a few cents less than $140.

Bankers and investment experts freely predict today that the present government securities will soon be repeating the rise of those other bonds.

The bankers' prophecies are not empty guesses. They point, among other signs, to the fact that our loans to European countries will be paying us an annual income of $430,000,000.

After the Victory Loan has been sold and distributed a few years will see a return of money to the old 3 and 4 per cent basis and the investors the world over will be out shopping, looking for something to buy.

That situation can mean only one thing—higher prices for the investments.

The man with a Victory Bond then will have a high-priced commodity on his hands—and he won't want to sell it.

DON'T SELL BONDS CHEAP

Holders of Liberty Bonds of any issue are warned by the government not to accept the first offer made by a "shark" in case they are forced to sell their bonds for any purpose.

It is best to borrow on your bonds instead of selling them, and the banks will usually grant a low rate of interest. But if you must sell, go to a regular bank, where you will get the full market price. If you can hold on, all the better, for the Liberty Bonds will certainly bring 100 cents on the dollar after a few years of peace.

Accomplishing Most Wonderful Results

"I want to thank you for your wonderful oil," states Mr. J. C. Gibson, of Jonesboro, Ark. "My little girl was very low with diphtheria; I had given her two doses of medicine which cost me $10, with no results. I bought a 25c bottle of your oil and one application relieved her. Now she is well. It is the greatest remedy I ever saw." Mr. Gibson made this statement before hundreds of people. Mrs. Florence Meager, 234 Whitney Street, Hartford, Conn., writes: "I have used your Antiseptic Oil for neuralgia with good effects. Only thing I have ever tried that stopped the pain immediately." Mrs. William Gadsden, Ala., writes: "I have used your great pain oil for rheumatism, stiff joints, also for sore throat, and I want to say that it is the greatest remedy I ever tried. I recommend it to all sufferers." Many cures reported daily from thousands of grateful users of this wonderful oil. Peppers.

The large sweet peppers are rapidly gaining favor as a garden vegetable. Their culture is comparatively easy, however, the plants are very tender and in most sections must be started indoors and transplanted to the garden.

The seed is sown and the plants handled in the same way as tomatoes. Where the cultivation is to be entirely by hand, the plants may be set about eighteen inches apart in each direction. For horse cultivation they should be placed in rows three feet apart and eighteen inches apart in the row.

Peppers require a rich soil in order to make a rapid, tender growth. If the growth is slow, the pods will be small and lacking in crispness.—United States Department of Agriculture.

Red Cross Peace Projects.

The foreign commissions and other organizations of the American Red Cross will aid the United States Public Health Service in keeping epidemic diseases out of this country.

Immigrants coming from epidemic zones abroad will have to pass a more rigorous examination at American ports—through a co-operative arrangement between the Red Cross and the Public Health Service.

Red Cross commissions in various European and Asiatic countries have been instructed to telegraph information regarding the presence of cholera, typhus, fevers, plagues and other grave communicable diseases, to the Red Cross commissioner to Europe. This information will allow the Public Health Service to take special measures to prevent the spread of these diseases in the United States.

All available information as to probable emigration from ports or areas under the observation of Red Cross agents will also be placed at the disposal of the Public Health Service.

Convalescent soldiers in the hospitals of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky will while away many dreary hours with the thousand picture puzzles which boys and girls of the Lake Division Junior Red Cross have just completed.

There weren't enough puzzles to occupy all the children. One fortunate Junior selected to work on a puzzle would be surrounded by as many as twelve envious boys, eager to plan and suggest new quirks in the cutting. A beautiful quality of veneer, well selected pictures and painstaking work have made the puzzles worthy of skilled artisans.

One hundred nurses for Siberia! This is the latest recruiting problem of the American Red Cross Department of Nursing.

Vladivostok will be the destination of these nurses whose duties will be to care for the wounded Czechoslovak soldiers in hospitals there.

tok. "And they are the ones who are doing the unselfish fighting."

The American Red Cross has been providing practically all the medical service for this plucky Siberian Army.

Disabled soldiers in the Lake Division will profit by a new arrangement between the American Red Cross and the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

William P. Janeways, formerly Red Cross associate field director at Camp Sherman (O.), enters the district vocational office for Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, April 10, to handle the routing of communications to Red Cross chapter Home Service workers—and to arrange through the local chapters, for interviews with the disabled men in their districts when the Federal Board's representative come to town.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Path to Health

For many thousands of women the Path to Health has certainly been through Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When this great remedy was first introduced, and for many years after, skeptics frowned upon its curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by it has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands—doubt and skepticism have been swept away as by a mighty tidal wave, until today this purely vegetable medicine is recognized as the greatest remedy for woman's special ills in the world. This is because it is a wonderful tonic and reconstructor which acts directly and favorably upon the feminine organization and is a specific for that purpose.

BOOKS IN USE WITHOUT STATE BOARD ACTION
History and Readers Never Adopted,
Recommended in Uniform
Course of Study.

Indianapolis, April 18. — That readers and histories never adopted by the state board of school commissioners were recommended in the "uniform course of study" for the elementary schools of 1917-1918, issued by Horace Ellis, then state superintendent of public instruction, adopted, and that examination questions were based on such books, came out today at the meeting of the state board of school commissioners to adopt books for use in the state for the next five years.

Several members of the board expressed surprise that books never adopted had been so used. L. P. Benzert, superintendent of the Evansville schools, said it was the first time he had ever heard of the matter. He said he was astounded.

C. O. Williams, county superintendent of Wayne county, commenting on the fact that readers had never been adopted for the seventh and eighth grades remarked:

"If you want seventh and eighth grade books, adopt them. But if you don't adopt them, don't base examination questions on readers not adopted."

He went on to explain that in his county other readers and histories than those recommended in the "Uniform Course of Study," had been used for the seventh and eighth grades, but examination questions to promote children to high schools had been based by the state superintendent's office on books recommended in the "Uniform Course of Study," and as a result most of the children had failed to pass the examination. The same thing was true in many other counties, he said.

Lesson Three

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

The Risen Lord

Matthew 28:1-10

GOLDEN TEXT.—He is risen, as he said.—Matthew 28:6.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL.—Luke 24: 1-7; John 20: 1-18; 1 Corinthians 15.

PRIMARY TOPIC.—An angel tells about the resurrection of Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC.—The story of an empty tomb.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC.—The living Christ.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC.—The meaning of Christ's resurrection.

I. The Visit of the Women to the Sepulcher (28:1).

They came early to see the sepulcher. Their zeal and love exceeded that of even Peter, James and John. "Women were last at the cross and first at the tomb."

II. The Earthquake (28:2, 4).

This occurred when the glorious angel descended to roll the stone away from the tomb. This work of the angel was not to allow Jesus to escape but to show that the tomb was empty. Christ needed not the help of a glorious angel, for he was raised up by his own power as the seal of his atoning work upon the cross. The open tomb and the angel sitting upon the stone with calm dignity is a picture of God's triumph over the devil, and the terror of the keepers is a sample of what all of Christ's enemies shall one day experience when he comes in glory to reign as king.

III. The Angel's Message to the Women (28:5-7).

1. "Fear not" (v. 5). While the enemies have occasion to fear, those who love the Lord receive good news from the empty tomb. The Lord will not long leave those who follow him, in suspense and dread. The empty tomb puts an end to all doubts and fears. It is the proof that the question of sin is dealt with and that God is satisfied, carrying with it the assurance of eternal victory.

2. "Come see" (v. 6). The angel said that the Lord had risen, and invited the women to see the place where he lay.

3. "Come quickly" (v. 7). The women must see for themselves and then go tell the message. Experience must precede testimony. They were to go quickly to the disciples with the works at Staaken. Rasch was one of the principal engineers who developed the giant German planes for use in bombing London, planes which would carry several hundred bombs and were three times as large as a "gotha."

Rasch said the Zeppelin people have decided it is not worth while trying to develop air navigation to America. Planes would have to carry so much fuel that there would be little room for either passengers or baggage. As a mail service, the planes would be useful, but they would not be as fast as the cable, and using them for post would be an expensive matter, unless governments did it.

For shorter distances, Rasch sees no end of possibilities and the Zeppelin people are preparing to use their works producing a new peace machine. For cross country work there is nothing to compare to aeroplanes, according to Rasch, but the air must be internationalized, everywhere, except possibly in America, if air navigation is to be made the most of.

"European countries are too small to make air service worth while, especially with the huge Zeppelin aeroplanes," said Rasch. "The route that planes will be most useful for will be from Berlin to Paris or London, Rome or Constantinople. That is where the great savings in time will count."

"Going from one city to another in Germany, for example, will be all right for small planes, but it will not be nearly as big a possibility as the overland routes from country to country. To do this successfully, the air must be internationalized, for the benefit of all countries."

"America is the only country where this will not apply, for all other countries are too small to keep an aeroplane within them. I look for the most remarkable aero development in America, where there are vast areas uncovered by railroads, or where railroads have to go around mountains."

"Planes can follow routes that will save hundreds of miles and hundreds of hours, both of which will appeal to Americans. In addition, Ameri-

How Every Woman Can Quickly Charm Her Friends With Lovely Teeth, Clean, White and Brilliant

If you want the cleanest of white teeth and healthy gums free from disease, an easy and quick way to get both is to use a tooth paste so effective and perfect that astonishing results usually come in a week's time.

And the cost is so little. Just go to any drug or department store, and get a large tube of SENRECO TOOTH PASTE for 35 cents.

Not only will it make your teeth clean and white, but it will at once remove any filmy coating, help to check the ravages of Pyorrhea and banish acidity in the mouth.

It is used by thousands of dentists and its sale has been remarkable. When you visit your dentist, which you should do at least twice a year, ask him about SENRECO. It's a most delightful and refreshing tooth paste.

cans have the energy and capital to develop the air route possibilities, while European concerns are depleted in finances."

Rasch says the Zeppelin people are expecting Americans to take up the Zeppelin, and build factories to produce it in America. Dirigibles require a house big enough to enclose the Vaterland, the world's greatest steamer and are more subject to wind changes. These factors make the plane the cheapest and most useful for peace work.

How Long Must I Suffer From the Pangs of Rheumatism?

Is there no real relief in sight?

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that your Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons from your blood. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs which infest your blood by the millions.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. You can get valuable advice about the treatment of your individual case by writing to the Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. D, Atlanta, Ga.

GREEN FANCY

By GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

The Farm-Boy Tells a Ghastly Story and an Irishman Enters.

Barnes stared, "What do you mean?" he demanded sharply.

"I mean just what I said. What do you know about this business?"

"How should I know anything about it?"

"Well, we don't know who you are, nor what you're doing up here, nor what your real profession is. That's why I ask the question."

"I see," said Barnes, after a moment. He grasped the situation and he admitted to himself that Jones had cause for his suspicions. "It has occurred to you that I may be a detective or a secret service man, isn't that the case? Well, I am neither. Did you know any more about these two men, Mr. Jones, than you know about me?"

"I don't know anything about 'em."

"What was their business?"

"Mr. Roon was lookin' for a place to bring his daughter who has consumption. He didn't want to take her to a regular consumptive community, he said, and so he was lookin' for a quiet place where she wouldn't be associatin' with lungers all the time. That was his business, Mr. Barnes, and I guess you'd call it respectable, wouldn't you?"

"Perfectly. But why should he be troubled by my presence here if—"

Miss Thackeray put an end to the discussion in a most effectual manner.

"Oh, for the Lord's sake, cut it out! Wait till he's dead, can't you?" she whispered fiercely.

"You've got all the time in the world to talk, and he hasn't more than ten minutes left to breathe unless that rube doctor gets here pretty soon. I think he's going now. Keep still, all of you. Is he breathing, Mr. Barnes? That awful cough just now seemed to— Her eyes were fixed on the still face.

"Why—why, how tightly he holds my hand! I can't get it away—he must be alive, Mr. Barnes. Where is that silly doctor?"

Barnes unclasped the rigid fingers of the man called Andrew Paul, and, shaking his head sadly, drew her away from the improvised bier. He and the shivering Mr. Dillingford conducted her to the dining room, where a single kerosene lamp gave out a feeble, rather ghastly light.

"Would you like a little brandy?" inquired Barnes, as she sat down limply in the chair he pulled out for her. "I have a flask upstairs in my—"

"I never touch it," she said. "I'm all right. My legs wobble a little but— Sit down, Mr. Barnes. I've got something to say to you and I'd better say it now, because it may come in pretty handy for you later on. Don't let those women come in here, Dilly."

"This afternoon I walked up in the woods back of the tavern to go over some lines in a new piece we are to do later on—God knows when! I could see the house from where I was sitting."

"EVERYTHING WRONG"

So It Seemed To This Lady, Until Cardui Relieved Her Suffering.

Wyandotte, Mich.—"About a year and a half ago," writes Mrs. Florence Rogers, now of this place, formerly of Florida, "I had got in very bad health. Everything was wrong. I couldn't eat anything that didn't make me suffer... My limbs also gave me great pain and the pains in the limbs extending down to the knees. I too had awful pains in the back and was very thin and run-down in health... was terribly nervous. Everything would startle me..."

An acquaintance told me of the great benefit she had received from Cardui... I was so bad off I couldn't do my work. The little daughter had to take charge of the work, and I could hardly walk..."

I began using Cardui, and in about a week I felt much improved... I got better right along, after taking the Cardui... In about 2 weeks after taking the Cardui, I was able to do all my work except the washing... In a month more, I could do all my work, and the washing too."

Ladies! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles. It has helped thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Why not you? Your druggist sells Cardui.

ting. Roon's windows were plainly visible. I saw Roon standing at a window looking toward the cross-roads with a pair of field-glasses. Every once in awhile he would turn to Paul, who stood beside him with a notebook, and say something to him. Paul wrote it down. Then he would look again, turning the glasses this way and that. Suddenly my eyes almost popped out of my head. Paul had gone away from the window. He came back and he had a couple of revolvers in his hands. They stood there for a few minutes carefully examining the weapons and reloading them with fresh cartridges. Just as I was about to start down to the house—it was a little after six o'clock, and getting awfully dark and overcast—Roon took up the glasses again. He seemed to be excited and called his companion. Paul grabbed the glasses and looked down the road. They both became very much excited, pointing and gesticulating, and taking turn about with the glasses."

"About six o'clock, you say?" said Barnes, greatly interested.

"It was a quarter after six when I got back to the house. I spoke to Mr. Bacon about what I'd seen and he said he believed they were German spies, up to some kind of mischief along the Canadian border. Then about half an hour later you came to the tavern. I saw Roon sneak out to the head of the stairs and listen to your conversation with Jones when you registered. That gave me an idea. It was you they were watching the road for."

Barnes held up his hand for silence. "Listen," he said in a low voice. "I will tell you who they were looking for." As briefly as possible he recounted his experience with the strange young woman at the cross-roads. "From the beginning I have connected this tragedy with the place called Green Fancy. I'll stake my last penny that they have been hanging around here waiting for the arrival of that young woman. They knew she was coming and they doubtless knew what she was bringing with her. What do you know about Green Fancy?"

He was vastly excited. His active imagination was creating all sorts of possibilities and complications, deceptions and intrigues.

Bacon was the one who answered. "People live up there and since we've been here two or three men visitors have come down from the place to sample our stock of wet goods. I talked with a couple of 'em day before yesterday. They were out for a horseback ride and stopped here for a mug of ale."

"Were they foreigners?" inquired Barnes.

"If you want to call an Irishman a foreigner, I'll have to say one of them was. He had a beautiful brogue. The other was an American, I'm sure. Yesterday they rode past here with a couple of swell-looking women. I saw them turn up the road to Green Fancy."

The arrival of four or five men, who stamped into the already crowded hallway from the porch outside, claimed the attention of the quartette. Among them was the doctor who, they were soon to discover, was also the corner of the county. A very officious deputy sheriff was also in the group.

Mr. Jones called out from the doorway: "Mr. Barnes, you're wanted in there."

"All right," he responded.

The doctor had been working over the prostrate form on the tables. As Barnes entered the room, he looked up and declared that the man was dead.

"This is Mr. Barnes," said Putnam Jones, indicating the tall traveler with a short jerk of his thumb.

"I am from the sheriff's office," said the man who stood beside the doctor. The rest of the crowd evidently had been ordered to stand back from the tables. "Did you ever see this man before?"

"Not until he was carried in here an hour ago."

"What's your business up here, Mr. Barnes?"

"I have no business up here. I just happened to stroll in this evening."

"Well," said the sheriff darkly. "I guess I'll have to ask you to stick around here till we clear this business up. We don't know you an'— Well, we can't take any chances. You understand, I reckon."

"I certainly fail to understand, Mr. Sheriff. I know nothing whatever of this affair and I intend to continue on my way tomorrow morning."

"Well, I guess not. You got to stay here till we are satisfied that you don't know anything about this business. That's all."

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

"BEST BY TEST"

The greatest advancement ever made in the manufacture of baking powder—so perfectly made that you're always sure of the very best baking results. Its leavening strength never varies. The last spoonful as good as the first. No failures. It raises the quality of your bakings and reduces baking costs.

It is sold at a moderate price and you use only half as much as of most other powders.

A product of the world's largest, finest, most sanitary baking powder factory. Used in the U. S. Army and Navy—by the most eminent Domestic Scientists—in more homes than any other brand. Its superiority has made it America's leading seller.

CALUMET GRIDDLE CAKES

2 — Level cups flour

2 — Level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder

1/2 — Teaspoon salt

1 — Level tablespoon sugar

2 — Level tablespoons melted shortening

2 — Eggs, yolks

1 1/4 — Cups milk or water

How to Make Them: Mix dry ingredients in flour. Beat egg yolks and melted shortening in the liquid, add only a part of the liquid, mix until smooth. Then add gradually the balance of the liquid until batter is of the proper consistency. According to the strength of the flour more or less liquid is required. Bake on hot griddle well greased.

Paste in your Recipe Book for future reference.

Have You Noticed This?

When you buy a pound of Calumet you get a full pound—16 oz. Some high priced baking powders are now being put on the market in 12-oz. cans instead of a pound. Be sure you are getting a pound when you want it. No short weights with Calumet.

SELECTION IS SECRET OF GOOD MUTTON CHOPS

"Personal selection of the mutton is our secret of success," says Chas. A. Dowell, proprietor of St. Hubert's Grill of Chicago, the best known English Mutton Chop House in America. "Buying the meat is largely a matter of experience. We use only the saddle (loins and first rib) of sheep dressing from 80 to 120 pounds. The chop should have a large 'eye,' a good covering and admixture of fat and should be cut two inches thick and trimmed (fell cut off) before broiling."

A small place has an advantage over a big hotel, because it is easier to get the chops on the table sizzling hot, which is highly essential in serving mutton, for its melting point is high and luke-warm mutton makes cold enthusiasts because of the furry taste it imparts. Roast mutton is very tasty, either hot or cold, never halfway between, but chops should always be served hot.

The reason given for the limited popularity of mutton and lamb was that too many sheep were formerly poorly fed on weeds and waste forage, while quick fattening on palatable feed is essential for good quality mutton. Tenderness is dependent on the rapid accumulation of fat from good feeding stuff. Mutton from sheep fed on weeds and waste is little more appetizing than pork from garbage-fed hogs, is the opinion of Mr. Dowell, who also said American mutton and lamb had improved greatly in the last few years.

The "muttony taste" so frequently objected to, is nearer in evidence in this Old English Inn and new patrons daily tell the proprietor they had no idea of the tastiness of good mutton before enjoying his chops. Unfortunately, for the sheep business their experiences had previously been with an inferior grade of meat.

Ed Hays has received a copy of the Commercial Appeal, published at Memphis, Tenn. showing a picture of Lieut. Alvin M. St. John, formerly of this city, who made a flight over Memphis, his home, in a Curtiss plane. He enlisted in the air service in July 1917 and after some training at the flying school at Sandusky, O., was sent to Kelly Field. He was appointed an instructor there and was commissioned in January, 1918. He has a record of 586 hours in the air. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. St. John.

American Triumph.

Before the war, exports in dyes from the United States were $500,000 a year. In 1918 the figures ran to $17,000,000. American textile manufacturers, when the war broke out, were panic-stricken, because they believed that Germany was the only country that could produce fine dyes. American chemists, however, came to the rescue and are now producing dyes better than the German.

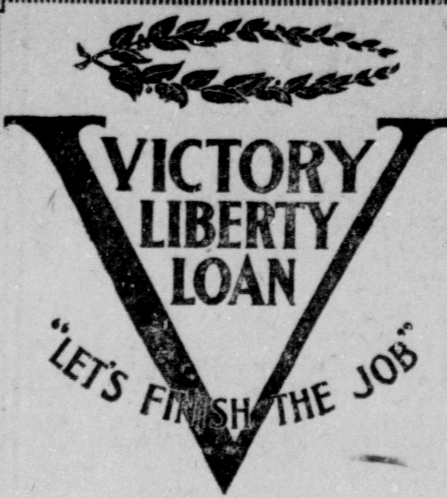

No, but They Think It Is.

"I fear these two citizens are having a warm argument about the war." "You are mistaken. Each is trying to convince the other he has the better furnace."

"Is that anything to quarrel about?" "It would be if they had the same make, but they haven't, and since each one regards himself as an authority on heat units, hostilities are liable to begin at any moment."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

GERMANY GETTING HER FIRST LESSON IN PLAIN DECENCY

America and Our Allies Are Doing The Schooling And It Costs Money.

In his "Soldiers Three" Kipling makes that wild Irishman, Mulvaney, say, "For every time you dance you must pay the piper, and sometimes it is cruel hard."

Germany wanted to dance to the tune of Autocracy, to the measure of World Dominion. For a matter of half a century Germany was preparing for the dance. She hoped to dance and let the rest of the world pay the bill. For the piper who pipes for the dance must always be paid.

But today Germany is entering upon the day of payment. It is a different day to what she had planned. The dance master, Wilhelm, had estimated that Europe could be made to dance the Dance of Death and pay for her own funeral steps. Wilhelm had planned it all as Germany's party. And now the World, the New World and the Old World, is standing by to see that Germany pays her own Death Dance bills.

Europe had been half expecting some such action on the part of the dance master of Potsdam. Nevertheless it all came as a surprise away back yonder in August of 1914. The nations of Europe who were to be made to dance at this party were not dressed for the occasion. They were not up to date in their military dress. They did not care for the music, preferring the softer strains of peace. But they were forced to dance anyway. It was Germany's own party.

And now it is over. The day of payment comes and the Allies are the paymasters. They furnished the music for the last waltzes of the Huns out of France. They piped the strains that sent the Hohenzollerns two-stepping into oblivion.

And Germany doesn't like it. The Germans are whining considerably. They are not talking much about the "shining sword" or "our inflexible will to conquer" or about making Lloyd George or President Wilson "bite granite." The dancing masters of Potsdam, Kaiser Wilhelm and the Crown Prince and the various Vons, the Mackensens, the Ludendorffs, and the Hindenburgs are all out of a job.

Now comes the time for a series of lessons in good manners and deportment for Germany. She is getting her schooling now. America and the Allies are doing the schooling. It is costing us something. Our U. S. Dollar will have to pay for a part of the German schooling. That means more money for the Fifth Liberty Loan. Get into it and do your part.

bonds he said that he had saved the money from his army pay and wanted to invest it where it would be safe and where it would do the most good for his country.

"This is all the money I have been able to save," declared Foster, "but I wish I had a lot more to invest in Victory bonds."

Workers in the county loan organization pointed to the action of Young Foster as illustrative of the true American spirit of loyalty and devotion. He not only gave his service, but risked his life in the very thick of the battle and then after

ARTICLE VI.

Sec. 1. The duties of the Executive Committee are outlined in Sections 1 and 6 of Article 1.

Sec. 2. The Civic Industrial Committee shall promote and advance the improvement of civic industrial conditions within the City of Seymour and community. This committee shall have as a definite purpose the development of the industrial enterprises of Seymour and its environs.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Local Business to assist in the conduct and development of all local business and the problems and question related thereto, and to encourage and promote conferences and gatherings for Seymour.

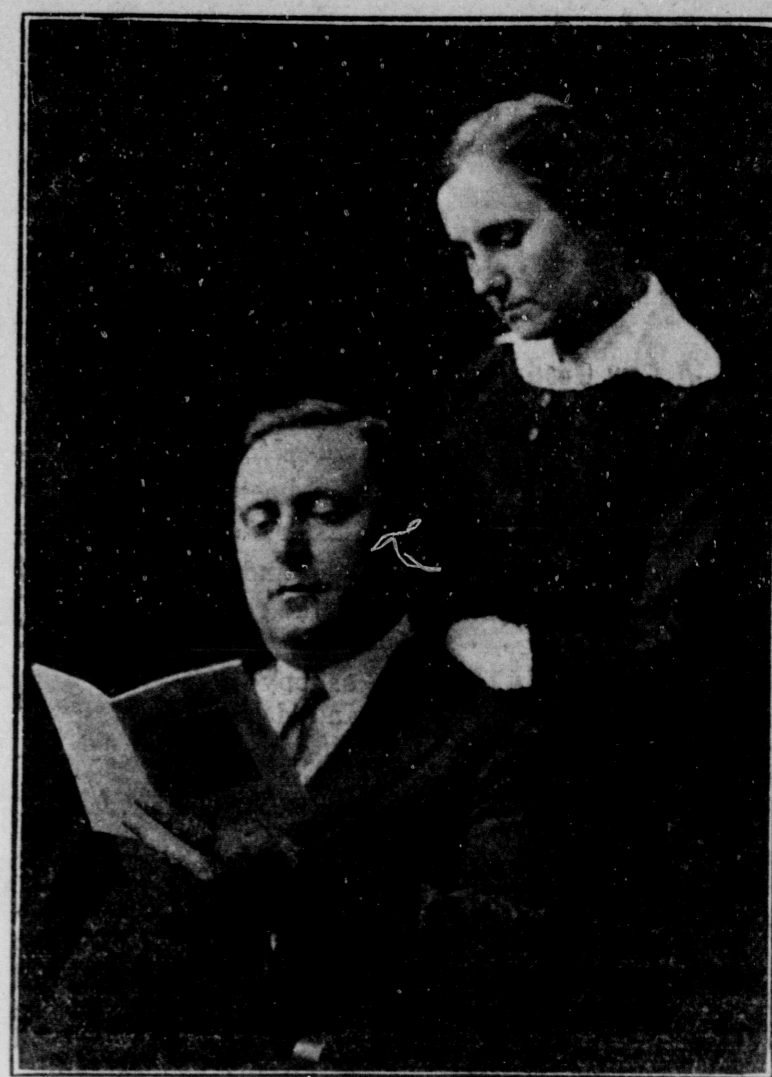

Sec. 4. The Finance Committee shall have general supervision of the raising of funds for special purposes and the disposition of such funds; they shall also assist the Secretary in the collection of outstanding dues and from time to time advise with committees having authority to expend funds with a view to the wise expenditure of such funds.

Sec. 5. The duties of the Membership Committee shall be to direct the promotion of membership in the Chamber of Commerce and recommend to the Board of Directors the election of members, the acceptance or rejection, resignation, and the termination of membership for any cause.

Sec. 6. The duties of the Publicity Committee shall be to direct all publicity authorized by the Organization concerning its affairs, arrange such advertisements and other publicity in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce. All publications issued by the Association shall be subject to the supervision of this committee.

Sec. 7. The Committee of Legislation shall consider the ordinances, bills, etc. referred to it by the Board of Directors and shall promptly report thereon. It shall be the duty of this committee to consider both form and substance of any ordinances introduced, or to be introduced, in the City Council of the City of Seymour, or any bill pending, or to be introduced, in either house of the Legislature, or in either branch of Congress, whenever any such ordinances or bills are referred to this committee, and to report such suggestions and recommendations regarding same as may be deemed proper for the in-

New Church Organized

THE CLARKS, Evangelists.

A very successful revival which has been in progress here for three weeks under the direction of The Clarks, evangelists, came to a close last night. One hundred people came to the altar of prayer. Evangelist and Mrs. Clark have organized a Holiness Christian Church with thirty-two members. They have rented as the church home the building at 301 West Brown street. Mrs. Clark will preach there Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. and at 8 p. m. Mr. Clark will sing at both services.

SOCIAL EVENTS

HOLD MONTHLY SOCIAL

The members of the St. Paul's Congregational church held the first of a number of monthly socials planned by them at the home of Mr. August Wanning yesterday afternoon and evening. After a social hour interspersed with music and readings the guests were invited to the dining room where an elaborate luncheon was served. Mrs. Wanning and Mrs. Pottschmidt were hostesses. About 65 were present. The guests all pronounced this one of the most enjoyable times the church has had for some time and are looking forward to the next meeting to be held at the home of William Plummer with great anticipations and are expecting a much larger attendance. Mrs. Wanning and Pottschmidt have the thanks of all present for the pleasant manner in which they entertained those present.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A delightful surprise party was given Thursday evening for Mrs. Frank Tiemeyer, 609 South Poplar street, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent with social conversation and games. Light refreshments were served.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Breitfield and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pollert and family, Mrs. Henrietta Mann and daughter, Miss Mayme, Mrs. Mary Rodert and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, Arthur Kasting and Leo Sierp.

NOTES OR TAXES?

The burden of taxes may seem heavy to the American people, but it must be a comforting thought that large as this amount is, it is less than the sum the large European nations will be obliged to impose on their people in taxes. According to calculations made by the Mechanics and Metals National Bank of New York, payments will be required in Great Britain amounting to $3,400,000,000. Entirely apart from indemnity payments, at least an equal amount will be required of the German people. French people will have to contribute taxes of more than three billion dollars for the nation's support. Buy Victory Notes or pay more taxes.

You Can Depend on the Man Who Advertises

Nine times out of ten you will find that the man who advertises is the man who most willingly returns your money if you are not satisfied.

He has too much at stake to risk losing your trade or your confidence. You can depend on him.

He is not in business for today or tomorrow only—but for next year and ten years from next year. He knows the value of good will.

You get better merchandise at a fairer price than he could ever hope to sell it if he did not have the larger volume of business that comes from legitimate advertising and goods that bear out the promise of the printed word.

Don't miss the advertisements. This very day they call attention to values that tomorrow you will be sorry you overlooked.

DON'T MISS THE ADVERTISEMENTS.

CHEVRON ON LEFT SLEEVE FOR THOSE IN LIBERTY LOAN

V-SHAPED BADGES OF HONOR
DISTINGUISH BUYERS OF THE NOTES (SHORT-TERM BONDS.)

ALL SOLDIERS IN A SENSE

One Supplements the Other in Giving Vital Service to Our Country.

Within a few days, or on April 21, you will see many persons on the street wearing a button with a big "V" pinned on the left sleeve. It will excite your curiosity, perhaps your criticism, but ere long you will be wearing one too if you are the sort of man we think you are.

The "V" stands for the chevron of service; it also stands for Victory, and it stands for the V (Fifth) and last loan needed to pay for the greatest victory ever won by force of arms. It is a badge of service—service rendered by the civilian. When you see a man wearing this badge you will know the bearer has done his duty to his country, just as you know the doughboy who gave his service to his country did his.

The soldier wears his service stripes on the left sleeve. The emblem is the chevron, the same shape as the "V" of the Victory Loan Honor Button. The thought in each instance is the same—soldier or civilian has done that which his country demanded, and the service is shown by the emblem, always appearing on the left sleeve.

Each supplements the other. The soldier could not have done his duty had not the civilian done his in providing the sinews of war—money.

Now that the soldier's duty is done, he is entitled to wear his badge of honor. As soon as each patriotic civilian has done his duty by subscribing to the Victory Liberty Loan he will be entitled to wear on his sleeve the "V" button badge of honor.

This round button is not large. With white characters on blue background, it will be worn only by those who have actually bought of the Victory Liberty Loan, and have invested their money with Uncle Sam, who never fails to meet obligations, financial or moral.

EXPECT HEARTY ANSWER

Representative Collier Says People
Will Keep Pledge and Buy Securities.

A signed statement by Representative James W. Collier of Mississippi, a member of the Ways and Means Committee of the United States House of Representatives, says:

"I believe that the American people will cheerfully answer the Government's call for additional funds, with which to meet its post-war obligations.

"We pledge all the resources of the country toward the winning of the great struggle in which we were engaged. The war is won, but the task will not be completed until all the expenses and obligations incident to its prosecution shall be met. The Government asked the people to invest in Bonds and War Savings Stamps in order to defray the enormous expenses necessary to a speedy and successful termination of the war in this they complied, and the various issues were largely over-subscribed. More money will be needed, and I believe that the American people will cheerfully subscribe to the purchase of as many Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps as may be necessary to meet the obligations and expenses which have already been incurred during the progress of the war."

 INSTALLMENT PRIVILEGES IN THE VICTORY LOAN *****

Installment privileges for the Liberty Victory Loan will be the most liberal in any government loan, Secretary of the Treasury Glass has announced officially at Washington. Payment will be permitted in six installments. In the fourth loan, the treasury allowed four installments.

The installment dates and the amounts, as announced by Glass, are as follows:

- * Ten per cent on or before May 10.
- * Ten per cent July 10.
- * Twenty per cent August 12.
- * Twenty per cent September 9.
- * Twenty per cent October 7.
- * And the remainder with accrued interest on deferred installments November 11.
- * The fourth loan payments were required to be completed in four months, as against six months in the Victory campaign. Prior to the fourth loan the treasury required full payment from the banks on subscription. The banks therefore had to carry all installment payments which they permitted.

EVERY INTEREST IS SERVED WHEN YOU HELP UNCLE SAM

Duty, Country and Your Own Personal Welfare Combined in a Happy Coincidence.

"Buy for love of country and to insure future prosperity!" Uncle Sam will say to the people of the United States when the sale of the Victory Liberty Loan notes (short term bonds) begins on April 21.

This is the last Liberty Loan drive and has truly been given an appropriate name—Victory Liberty Loan. To every true American this name will strike home. This loan is one of the obligations that come to the victors. While President Wilson and the peace delegation are in France looking after the world's obligations, it is not fair that we here at home should, in our way, look after the great debt of gratitude we owe our boys in blue and khaki.

Although the actual fighting is over, the Government is still under a tremendous expense. All of the money raised in previous Liberty Loans has been expended and the Government has been obliged to borrow from the banks. Much is yet to be done, which will mean the necessary expenditure of more money.

Our forces overseas must be maintained; the wounded must be rehabilitated and the men must be brought back home. In addition to other expenses, this means a tremendous expenditure. A large part of the money loaned to the United States during the coming Victory Liberty Loan drive will be used to care for the wounded men and to bring back the boys who went across the water that we might be victorious.

In addition to the patriotic view every person should take when approached during the campaign, to buy a Victory Note, it should be borne in mind that the purchase is the best investment possible. Financiers concede it to be the safest security, and the rate of interest will be attractive.

ARE YOUR TAXES HEAVY?

They Would Be Heavier If the Victory Loan Failed.

Probably every reader of this paper finds his taxes a bit higher than he likes to pay. Thousands of them have been struggling for the past few weeks to make out reports on income taxes to the government, and have found that six per cent takes a pretty heavy slice out of what was left over on New Year's day. Many of you had to borrow money to pay the taxes.

But this tax is nothing to what all of us will have to pay if the Victory Loan fails to go over. Uncle Sam's war bills must be paid. He prefers to borrow the money from us and pay us back later on.

But if he can't borrow it, he must take it—in the form of taxes.

It's like the difference between renting a house for 10 years or buying it on the installment plan. In one case, you wind up with a thick bundle of rent receipts. In the other, you have a deed to your home.

Isn't it better to lend your money to the government at a fair rate of interest than to pay it out in taxes, which never comes back?

That's worth considering when the time comes to invest in Liberty Bonds.

YOU CAN CUT INCOME TAX

Subscriptions to Victory Loan Will Tend to Reduce Taxation.

Uncle Sam unwittingly put out one of the best arguments for subscription to the Victory Liberty Loan when he sent around to us early this month out blanks for the income tax reports.

Did you sit up and take notice when you had figured yours out? Did it startle you?

Large as it was, it would have to be bigger if you and your neighbor had not bought liberally of the Liberty Bonds of the past issues.

And if you want it to be smaller next year you and your neighbor must subscribe just as liberally as you possibly can to the Victory Liberty Loan when the drive opens this month.

It is plain as can be to you after a little thought on the income tax blank. The war debts have to be paid.

If they are not paid out of loans they will be paid out of taxes.

And you didn't notice anything in that income tax blank which said the government would pay you interest or give you back what you paid.

Save Your Own Honor.

Uncle Sam is in honor bound to see this war through to the finish. Do your part by supporting the Victory Liberty Loan campaign as you have supported the preceding Liberty Loans. Save your own honor and the nation's honor by putting this loan across.

Old Hun Ambitions.

Germany, as early as 1912, planned to use gas in the five-year siege she instigated. Proof of this is found in the statements of American soldiers of the famous Second Division, who say that among their trophies of war are gas masks manufactured in Cologne two years before the conflict started. The Victory Loan will be the final act in smothering Hun ambitions.

territorial concessions for entering the war on the side of the allies.

Certain of the allies, led by the Americans, have maintained that acceptance of the armistice terms abrogated all secret treaties. President Wilson has made it known that he will not deviate from the stand that this dispute must be settled according to the fourteen points.

mands for early settlement of the Shantung question are expected to appear before the "big four" tomorrow or Sunday. They are insistent that their claims to ratification of concessions in the Shantung peninsula which are bitterly opposed by the Chinese be recognized at once.

All commissions with the exception of the one considering the conflicting Polish and German boundaries claims, have completed their work. It is expected there will be two plenary sessions next week, possibly on Thursday and Friday. The league of nations covenant and reports of the various commissions probably will be submitted at the first session. The entire treaty will be taken up at the second. Both meetings are expected to be secret.

Several soldiers in Jackson county who were among the first to be discharged following the signing of the armistice have been made happy during the past few days upon receipt of a check from Uncle Sam for $60, their bonus which all discharged soldiers have already received or will within a short time. Some persons have failed to write for their bonus which will not be paid until proper steps are taken to claim it.
